

LAUNCHING OF THE INTERNATIONAL CAMPAIGN TO PRESERVE THE STATION

Paris - Institut du Monde Arabe - 10th February 2010

SAFADI le 6 mars 2010 -

SAMMOUR Richard

An enriching experience it was indeed...

Working alongside the right people for the right cause, helping save a forgotten history.

SEIFEDDINE Mohamad - Mido

I do believe that the place must be preserved.

Since my «shout» was chosen as the cause poster. A shout that symbolises present hanging onto the heritage of the past, the hand holding the «Orient Express» train. I am so glad to have helped the cause in my own artistic way.

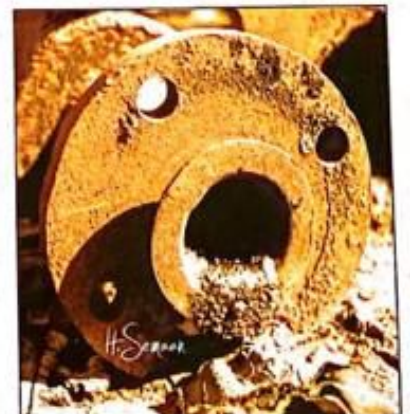

SEMAAN Hanna

Deep was the emotion I felt when I knew that I was part of saving a last witness of a long lost legacy, the Tripoli rail station.

So honored I felt when my work was to introduce a century of forsaken treasure...

In this busy world of ours,
it is gratifying when people take time to help
serving a cause.

In appreciation,
«Friends of Tripoli Railway Station»
would like to say:

THANK YOU

to our partners:

Association pour la Sauvegarde du Patrimoine de Tripolis

Municipality of Tripoli

Safadi Foundation

وقع العريضة

We believe that the Tripoli railway station must be classified as a historical monument
by the Lebanese Ministry of Culture.

A museum dedicated to the memory of the "Orient Express" must be created inside the site.

The "Orient Express" was a train that once Tripoli/Paris through Europe at the beginning of the twentieth century.

نحن نؤمن بأن محطة القطار التاريخية
في طرابلس يجب أن تكون مصنفة كمنشأة
تراثية.

يجب أن يكون هناك متحف مخصص لذكرى القطار
الشرق-الغرب داخل الموقع.

القطار الشرق-الغرب بين طرابلس وباريس
في بداية القرن العشرين.
