

Tourathi Tourathak©

An Educational Project

“Tourathi Tourathak ©” or “Patrimoine en Partage” (PEP) is an educational program developed by the Patrimoine Tripoli Liban (PTL) association in collaboration with Patrimoine sans frontières (PSF). It aims to introduce students to the tangible and intangible heritage that surrounds them in order to preserve and enhance it.

c'est aussi leur culture,
FRONTIÈRES
leur mémoire et leur patrimoine

- Launched for the first time in 2015-2016 in 3 public schools in Tripoli
- Extended in 2016-2017 to 6 public schools in Tripoli
- Integrated into the school curriculum in 2017-2018 for all schools in Tripoli and northern Lebanon

Stage	Description	Duration
Stage 1	Discovery of personal heritage	2 months
Stage 2	Visit to a common heritage site	2 months
Stage 3	Reproduction and restitution	2 months

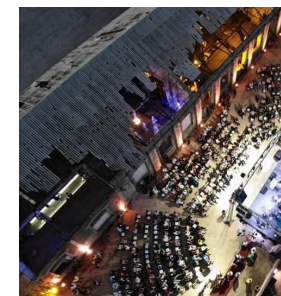

Once the educational project was completed, PTL decided to showcase the work done by teachers and students through a major socio-cultural event that took place at Khan Al Askar in May 2016. This marked the birth of the Heritage Days (JDP) for the first time, and they were registered with the Lebanese Ministry of Culture as an annual heritage event for the city.
